Funding from the National Security Education Program (NSEP) support the U.S. Undergraduate and graduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests. Up to $20,000 for undergraduates and $30,000 for graduate students, depending on cost and length of program. Additional information on NSEP can be found on their website, http://www.borenawards.org/

CUA Global Ambassadors’ Meet & Greet Session
If you have ever thought of studying abroad (or have recently returned from studying abroad), join us this Wednesday (Sept. 29) from 8:00 to 9:00 pm in Pryz 321 for refreshments and food to discuss the abroad experience. Meet CUA students who have recently returned from incredible experiences studying and interning in a variety of locations such as Ireland, Spain, Italy, Australia, Belgium, England, Argentina, France and more. Hear tales of overseas adventures, advice on applications, visas, packing, international internships, language barriers, etc. The experts are at your fingertips and eager to help you through the process of a once in a lifetime opportunity! Your adventure begins today.

This is an event created for students by students in conjunction with CUAbroad. Please contact 93stgeorge@cardinalmail.cua.edu or 07pomykata@cardinalmail.cua.edu for questions or special accommodations.
