Deadline extended for CUA Semester in ROME

There is still time to apply for CUA’s own education abroad program in Rome! Participants live in Rome for a semester, while learning the importance of the eternal city in the areas of Italian language, History, Philosophy, Theology, and more! The deadline has been extended to March 30, 2009! Visit CUA in Rome’s website for more information.

Apply to Study Abroad this Fall!

Make note that the application deadline for CUA-affiliated education abroad programs is next Monday, March 2, by 5pm. All application materials need to be turned in directly to the CUAbroad office by this time.

Back in the USA: A workshop for past participants

CUAbroad is sponsoring a Re-Entry workshop for CUA students who recently returned from both CUA and non-CUA education abroad programs. The event is free and light refreshments will be provided. Please bring photos/stories to share your resume if you’d like to put your best foot forward in your job and grad school search. Please R.S.V.P. by Friday, March 6.

Information Session on the new London Internship program

Join Dr. Leslie Zweigman, director of Anglo-American Educational Services, for an info session on the new London Internship program that will offer many internship opportunities in such fields as Literature, Business, History, Psychology, and many more! The meeting will be on Thursday, February 26th at 12:15pm in the Pryzbyla Center room 327.

Education Abroad Students can share experiences on GLIMPSE!

Glimpse is excited to announce its newly re-launched website, which offers expanded opportunities for students to connect with peers and share stories about real life abroad. On the new http://www.glimpse.org, students can share photos and stories, start a blog, enter a photo contest, or leave an Insider Tip about living abroad.

I Promise, Your Ticket to a Great Spring Break

Monday, Feb. 23, to Friday, Feb. 27  The Counseling Center, with other CUA offices, presents a week of activities to help students learn how they can enjoy Spring Break while staying safe and responsible. Students can take the “I Promise” pledge online at: http://ipromise.cua.edu. They can also visit the "E-Chug" online at http://counseling.cua.edu/alcohol/ to take a survey about alcohol. For more information on any of the events listed below, call the Counseling Center at 202-319-5765.

Take me to the CUAbroad website  Join the CUAbroad Facebook group!

To be added or removed from the CUAbroad mailing list, please send a e-mail to bolls@cua.edu